Tender for purchase of books on freedom movement

Shyamji Krishna Varma was a great revolutionary. He established India House in London in 1905. To liberate the motherland from the clutches of British rule, Shyamji Krishna Varma raised a banner of revolt against British rule in India from London itself. To commemorate his contribution, a memorial of Shyamji Krishna Varma is under construction which will house a library, e-library and audio-visual room. For library, Shyamji Krishna Varma Memorial Society is desirous of purchasing books, e-books, dvds, documentaries on Indian freedom fighters, revolutionaries from different parts of India and other countries as well.

Interested publishers, booksellers, organizations and persons are requested to send either a list of books or a list of titles along with price list and discount offered. On the basis of a list of books received, society will ask them to send books, dvds etc. to be examined by the committee of experts for purchasing them. Last date for receiving a list of books is 31-5-2010. Society reserves its power to accept or reject any offer without assigning any reason.
